

3285 – Micro-Grooved Commercial, Insulated (shown above with optional 24" x 6" inserts)

C.H.I. Commercial garage doors are constructed using the finest raw materials, produced by the hands of skilled craftsman and customized with computer aided precision. The 3285 Insulated Micro-Grooved polystyrene Sandwich Door was specially engineered for extra durability to afford years of dependable operation even in the toughest industrial environments.

Features

- 26 gauge face and 27 gauge back steel are mechanically locked and bonded to a CFC free polystyrene core with urethane adhesive for maximum structural integrity
- Tongue and groove meeting rails provide superior joint strength and weather resistance
- Concealed hinge attachment plates run the full height of sections for superior strength
- Rigid exterior end stiles are painted white
- Glass is easily replaced or substituted by removing molded frames
- Exhaust port is optional for bottom section
- Heavy duty hardware may be specified with 11 or 14 gauge hinges and 10 ball rollers
- Bottom U-shaped astragal is standard
- Increased windload requirements may be specified
- R-value: 8.74

Available Colours

White

SANDSTONE

BROWN